I only see the red when you
Cross the line
You'll hear me out this time
You're gonna take it from me
We start to overload
We circle then explode
We're gonna tear it down
We'll tear this whole place down

Got your back to the wall
And your face is in the sand
You got your back to thewall
Stand up life a man

Don't walk away from me
Or you will know who i am
When i let go
Don't talk that way to me
I will show you what i am
When i let go

I'll sever all the ties
I'll sever you and i
It's never short and sweet
Cause you life confrontation
Your backs against the wall
We're gonna see you fall
We're taking over here
It's time to face your fear

Got your back to the wall
And your face is in the sand
You got your back to the wall
Stand up like a man

Don't walk away from me
Or you will know who i am
When i let go
Don't talk that way to me
I will show you what i am
When i let go

Let go

Don't walk away from me
Or you will know who i am
When i let go
Don't talk that way to me
I will show you what i am
When i let go
Don't walk away from me
Or you will know who i am
When i let go
Let go
