God placed in our hearts eternity that's the emptiness that be eternally burning me I look out into the sea wondering what my purpose supposed be Trying to find a meaning walking down the streets of
New York City
Everything fast paced in a rat race trying to find my place we be Spiritual people

Chorus

Spiritual people spiritual people spiritual

I -2 I'm back at the clubs tonight at a open mic gonna recite tonight alright
in a room full of open minds open brains people ashamed to say that we don't have no clue and every form expression that we do is all dedicated to a higher cause a higher plain a higher thing a higher name
it's all the same baby even blue suits with corporate pursuits feel the same emptiness that we do Who on this earth can claim that they don't search to fill a void that we done had since birth yeah cause we are spiritual people spiritual people spiritual people
