We've all been burnt by the world our buildings stand tall as technology swirls where's our passion for life? racisms got me down sexisms all around stealing all our joy who's behind this ploy?

Chorus

What ever happened to just the simple love of life?

Situations have got us so mad didn't turn out the way we wish that they had road rage pulling in front of my car ain't none of us going far like we got somewhere different to go life my lot ain't deep as yours

Chorus

What ever happened to just the simple love of life?

Mr. policeman I got robbed I said I just got robbed of my love for everyone I'm tired of being alone when every second there's some one else that's being born Isse that homeless man I won't step to lend him a hand I see that hungry kid but I let down my eyelids I see my lids now what ever happened to the love of life?
we've been sent to love we've been sent to heal we've been sent to live our lives in harmony and we've bee sent here to build
