"Walk On By"

It's Monday morning I feel a little strange,
I'm kinda thinking I'd like to make a change.
Never known what I wanted before,
Seems there's nothing here that I care for,
Maybe wrong but how can I be sure,
Never had it bad but I need more.

CHORUS

I'll walk on by you won't see me hide,
I'm moving on 'coz I don't need anyone,
Now I think it's time, leave it all behind,
Gonna walk on by.
I've gotta let go I've gott do what's right,
No use complaining I'll always do what I feel like,
It feels alright.

Never had it bad but I need more,
Never known what I wanted before,
Seems there's nothing here that I care for, hey yeah,
Maybe wrong but how can I be sure.

CHORUS

I've waited here a long time to get on my way,
There's nothing real that is mine,
And nothing to make me stay, to make me stay, yeah.

CHORUS

Gonna walk on by you won't see me hide oh no,
Noe I think it's time, leave it all behind,
Gonna walk on by.
