"Wishing your life away"

I wish that I could speak,
Without my tongue in cheek.
I wish that I could keep the time,
and I'd never miss a beat.

I wish that I was brave then I'd ask your name.
Just so I could keep my mind and not wish my life away.

I wish that I could cheat,
and make my conscience weak
I wish that I could tell a lie and I'd never even blink.

I wish that I could say what I want to say
Just so I could speak my mind and not wish my life away.

Wish and pray your life away
Wish and pray your life away
Wish and pray, wish your life away
