I suffer a condition of headspace,
I guess I've got a mind of my own,
I don't stop to think of the consequences blowing up,
oh no,

I can't keep me under control.
I don't put sense over the situation,
I don't need your additional views, no,
Let go, I know I can find my own way.

CHORUS

Give it up, I'll do what I do, In my own time,
Don't fight me and I won't fight you,
So what I get caught in the middle,
I get mixed up a little,
Isn't life designed to live in overdrive,
That's the only way.
All you people looking for answers,
To questions that you don't understand, no,
You're too slow to know this is the ride of your life,
You only get one chance.

CHORUS

That's the only way.
So what I get caught in the middle,
I get mixed up a little,
Isn't life designed to live in overdrive,
That's the only way.
