Stuck in a moment, suddenly hoping it's not real,
I know what you're thinkin',
Something is missing that you need.
There's no way to see if it's you or me,
But I've done nothing wrong,
You need something more than reassurance,
Here with me is where you belong.

CHORUS

Baby please, please remember,
I said please, baby please remember, remember me.
I'm up and I'm down now, thinkin' out loud,
But I don't care oh no,
And I might as well just talk to myself,
'Coz your not there.
And I've tried to say that it's not too late,
Why dan't you understand,
Oh but you don't hear me and won't come near me,
Right beside me you belong.
CHORUS (x4)
