I'm gonna get deep down, deep down
Said, I'm gonna get deep down, deep down

Wooo, Hey!

Chorus:

I'm a Hippie, but I got a tattoo
I'm a Rasta, but I got short hair
I'm a Businessman, but I love to smoke joints
I'm a Teacher, who never gets to the point
Like Racer, who never drives too fast
I need a pacemaker that's built to last
Like Bohemians, that's all I am
I might change you, for everything

What, What(x2)

Well I don't need news, don't need words
When it tells me what I just heard
I just move with the grace of God
Try not to feel how it leaves me scarred
I'm not into who wrote that, bro.
Finding out about the gun smoke
I got my own little plan
To get me heard onto another platform
Against the norm
And I remember what I did in the dorm

Chorus:

I'm a Hippie, but I got a tattoo
I'm a Rasta, but I got short hair
I'm a Businessman, but I love to smoke joints
I'm a Teacher, who never gets to the point
Like Racer, who never drives too fast
I need a pacemaker that's built to last
Like Bohemians, that's all I am
I might change you, for everything

What, What(x2)

(Bridge)

Well, I live for my visions everyday
To pat me on the back and just say
Everything's going to be OK (ok)
Just don't need to worry (worry)
I won't think about the times that were
I'll just hope they're all a blurr
And I can't stop me, bein' me
But the changes come, and the changes must be
Kinda ironic, isn't it (isn't it)
They tell the story, I'm livin't it (livin' it)
But you know, it's got to be told
Don't want to live inside a pigeon hole

Chorus:

I'm a Hippie, but I got a tattoo
I'm a Rasta, but I got short hair
I'm a Businessman, but I love to smoke joints
I'm a Teacher, who never gets to the point
Like Racer, who never drives too fast
I need a pacemaker that's built to last
Like Bohemians, that's all I am
I might change you, for everything

Ooo...

Just say (you want to be free)

Chours(x2)

(We want to be free)

(It's true, we do)

I'm a Hippie
