I'm feelin' so mixed up, sad and lonesome too,
'cause since that day you left me - girl, I don't know what to do.
I cry each night, I long to hold you tight,
I guess that's just a part of a teenage love affair.
It has been so long - since I last saw your face
I feel so lost inside - and I just can't think straight
My teacher thinks I'm a fool - so I'm working after school,
I guess that's just a part of a teenage love affair.
My folks just look 'n' - laugh at me.
My friends and I - we just don't agree.
I've got to see a doctor - to see what he can do
'cause since that day you left me - I don't what to do
It's unfair - no one seems to care,
I guess that's just a part of a teen age love affair.
