The fear is growing
Getting stronger everyday
Want to escape
Well let me show you the way
Just think back to
When everything was new
Everything was better
Everything including you

The newest revival
Just another business plan
To sell the same old trash
Again and again
Cheap nostalgia
Is a fine place to hide
When the past is all you've got
Cause you never tried

Chorus:
All those memories
All those memories
That you can pay with a creditcard
All those memories
All those memories
Their not as fine as you think they are

So full of hope
But how quickly we forget
That the same old creeps
Talked the same old shit
But I was never gonna take the same old dive
Back when I was living
Back when I was alive

Chorus:
All those memories
All those memories
That you can pay with a creditcard
All those memories
All those memories
Their not as fine as you think they are
