Everyone's a target and every gun is loaded
And if you can't shot it then hell, just explode it.
Everyone is listening and everyone's afraid
And if they're not fanatics then they're probably getting paid

Everything's a problem and of course there's nothing new
But the windows that we look through are just a point of the view
That everyone has and every single one's unique
But if you don't agree then you're probably a freak

Chorus:
Cause it's a dogfight - cause it's a dogfight
Cause it's a dogfight where no one wins
Yeah, it's a dogfight - no one is really right
Another dogfight

Today's newest scandal is tomorrow's history
That most folks forget because no one wants to see That action breeds reaction so what are you gonna do When they look in your direction when that gun's pointing at you

Chorus:
Cause it's a dogfight - cause it's a dogfight
Cause it's a dogfight where no one wins
Yeah, it's a dogfight - no one is really right
Another dogfight
