I'm finished feeling guilty
Now that everything's a crime
I'm finished trying to be cool
'Cause I'm nervous all the time

I'm a victim of technology
But it's been so good to me
Now I'm finished with that too
One two three four...

I'm finished with the truth
Because it's probably a lie
And if you'd really like to know
I'll be glad to tell you why
I've had many conversations
That never seemed to end
But if you think I'm an easy target
You'd better (fucking) think again

Chorus:
Because I've started - I've started...
I've started to look for the finish line
I've started - I've started over

I'm finished doing nothing
'cause there's nothing else to do
And I'm finished with the process
That everyone goes through
Of integration and acceptance
And the search for what went wrong
Or to tell the truth what hasn't gone wrong?

Chorus:
Because I've started - I've started...
I've started to look for the finish line
I've started - I've started over
