There's no place I call height (aaah)
There's no way in a mean street (aaah)
There's no happy medium (aaah)
There's no in between (aaah)
So do your searching, until you're down (aaah)
Then realise, you're on home ground (aaah)

Sittin' in a white room dreaming of a life
You have got me thinking, what is paradise?

Should I take an ocean drive
Coolin' from the sun
Silver screen got me thinkin'
This is how it should be done

Take me home (aaah)
There's no place I'd rather be now, yeah (aaah)
Take me home (aaah)
There's no place I'd rather be now, yeah (aaah)

Stand together alone, not knowing who you are Friendly strangely, strangely friendly
Would you keep me warm?

Would you keep me warm?
You know, you can be your paradise
A heart to keep me warm
You can have your own dream life
Step into your comfort zone
Comfort zone

Take me home (aaah)
There's no place I'd rather be now, yeah (aaah)
Take me home (aaah)
There's no place I'd rather be now, yeah (aaah)
Aint nobody to take me home
cause I'm here, yes where I belong
I'm on leave cause I'm on my way, but my home
It will always stay
Aint nobody to take me home
cause I'm here, yes where I belong
I'm on leave cause I'm on my way, but my home

It will always stay
Aint nobody to take me home
Cause I'm here, yes where I belong
I'm on leave cause I'm on my way, but my home
It will always stay
[repeat]
So it's all just free falling falls
Huh, out of time
You've got yours, I've got mine
Should all this be so precious
Maybe I should be a little humble
Slate to fear, cause I could stumble
So do your searching until you're down
Cause you're on home ground

Take me home (aaah)
(take, take, take, take me home, take, take take me
home)
There's no place I'd rather be now, yeah (aaah)
Take me home, (aaah)
(take, take, take, take me home, take, take take me
home)
There's no place I'd rather be now, yeah (aaah)
[repeat]
