He, he. I...I just put that in there because I...I thought it was kind of Cute, besides that, my mother is in the audience.
I'm in the mood for love,
Simply because you're near me.
Ah, oh. Oh, Mr. Electrician there, that...that spotlight is too bright. My Eyes, I can't see the music.
Thank you very much, Sir.
Heaven is in your eyes.
Oh, Oh, Sir, I...I told you, that spotlight is too bright. I can't see the Music. (Bang! Smash!) I warned
Him, didn't I?
Why stop to think of weather?
No, George, no, George.
Our little dream might fade.
Ah, clever boy. He's relly torched.
We put our hearts together.
Now we are..
George, George, you are not playing. Mother's in the audience, George.
George. George, stop it,
George. George! She's my mother, too.
If there's a cloud above,
If it should rain, we're ready.
But for tonight (Sneeze) forget it. (Sneeze sneeze)
But for tonight (Sneeze) forget it. (Sneeze sneeze sneeze)
Forget it, George, you are blowing out the candles.
I'm in the mood for love.
