And I spend alot of time, wishing I was someone else.
I wish I could face the world that presents itself.
But, when I feel my heartbeat slowly fade away,
I see no reason to stay.

I jumpship, jumpship,
I jumpship, jumpship.

I think we got it. Jumpship. Jumpship.

Well, you spend alot of time,
wishing you were in love with someone else.
Oh, 'cause when your lover does you wrong,
you place the blame on yourself.
How you gonna fly with your wheel chained to the ground?
I see no reason to hang around.

I jumpship, jumpship,
I jumpship, jumpship.

I feel so right.

Well, we spend alot of time,
wishing we had grown up somewhere else.
Because your mommy and your daddy
were not always mom and daddy themselves.
So, how we gonna walk, how we gonna talk?
No. Like hell, were gonna learn to Jumpship, jumpship,

I jumpship, jumpship.

I think we got it. Jumpship. We got it. Jumpship.
Jumpship.
