...and it was another chance for me, another chance to make you believe your near.

You'll never know what it's to always be last in line with no chance to fight, you're so far gone that you can't even see the light

...and it feels so dark inside me now because there's no one there you'll never know what it's like to be the one who really cares...

So long the time ago to be what I wanted to be to you You said, "Don't hold me down, I've got to go and do what I have dreamed, not knowing where you are and missing you would be good for you and me."

Could it be that years have gone from me, gone away waiting for the one I loved?
Do you think about me
