When I turned my back,
see I made this big mistake.
See I give in to anyone,
But then I guess that there's just you.

Once I thought that I was fine,
But now I know the truth.
It's hard to give up and turn around,
When I think that I'm in love with you.

Chorus:

Time to be free, don't look at me
Just turn your back and walk the other way
Time to be free, don't look at me
Just turn your back and walk the other way

In the end it was so hard,
To run away from you.
And lock these feeling up inside,
Hopin this f*#$ reality would become the truth

Chorus 3x
