"An Ideal Ending"

Visit "An Ideal Ending" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm dropping dimes in wells and fountains
While watching shooting stars fall across the sky
The clock to my right reads 11:11
All the eyelashes rest on my fingertips just right
Every candle has been blown out
Every lamp has that polished shine

This is my wish:

I wanna be anywhere but here
I wanna have anyone but you
I wanna feel anything but fear
I wanna watch this whole place come unglued

(... but making a wish is about as pointless as wearing a helmet
As I fall asleep on the train tracks tonight)

I wanna be anywhere but here
I wanna have anyone but you
I wanna feel anything but fear
I wanna watch this whole place come unglued
