White lines on the table look
Like a road
Like a road
Like a road
Then there's the message that we're hooked
Dominos
Dominos
Dominos
I think you'll notice whoever you are
Cheap sex in a pick-up truck
Is a mess
Is a mess
Is a mess
Then there's the message that we're fucked
Fall in love
Fall in love
Fall in love
Hey what's your name?
I'll give you anything you want
Hey what's your name?
I'll take everything you've got
All aboard the drunk express
Bottles of wine in excess
Lines of gold to fill your holes
Holes so deep
Well no one knows
