We shouldn't be here
This can't be happening
"I don't think you are, I don't think you're sorry"
The weather's the worst it's ever been
The trees bend in the wind
The sleet comes down in sheets
And covers up these streets

You're worried about your conscience and commitment
Well I'm worried about the footsteps in the kitchen

I can feel your arm trying to push me away
You're in a hurry
But I'm still standing in between
You and the place you want to be
Once the door shuts
I collapse in the garage
My knees freeze on this concrete as I plead

You're worried about your conscience and commitment
Well I'm worried about the footsteps in the kitchen
You're worried about repentance and forgiveness
Well I'm worried about punishment and consequences

Your phones dead
For all I know, you are too
On the side of the road
I've never been so worried
I've never been so humbled
I'm waiting here for just one chime
For just one sign that you'll be alright
I've never been so guilty
But I am responsible

I'm drifting fast asleep
Just say you're not drifting like me [x4]

You're worried about your conscience and commitment
Well I'm worried about the footsteps in the kitchen
