

Spires That In The Sunset Rise "The May Ham"

Visit "The May Ham" on MotoLyrics.com

Oh come, now, other dawn
(I don't need echoes, sun)

Rise up and shine a way
To have the one I raid!

Don't fade where we have flown
Build houses uprooted by floods of sun
Stay on

I can explain one thing
Another dawn will climb away

I'll leave you on this road
With your glass a heavy load

"Don't go", says Innocence
Weight's on, but let me go on now
Where there's no
Ground

So hope won't fade away
While the rising dawn turns into day

(It's fair your ship should know
Before your house is blown)

(Compared to Innocence
My senses, wil, waiting there
For you to Scare)
