I can't help to reduce your love
Entice you into believing
I turn away but I see your face
I don't know why I keep leaving
The pain i've caused
Was enough to make you see me
You can't change what I feel inside
I wish my heart wasn't thinking
The pain of thought isn't open wide
So why am I always needing?
Chorus:
What if I bled in your arms?
Will you cry for me in a plead?
What if I fall and i'm broken?
Will you pick up the pieces of me?
I hurt too deep, but i've made you strong
You stay and cope with these feelings
I lie awake, but it still seems wrong
And see the people that see me
[Chorus]
Can't help but walk through the broken glass
Too late for sorry, it's time has passed
Can't help but walk through the broken glass
Too late for sorry, it's time has passed
How easy you lie to me
I wanted something better for you
How easy you lie to me
I wanted something better for you
[Chorus]
