"Sunset To Sunset"

Escape is my own route
As escape back through the gates of youth
I see the fire in your dead eyes
You keep your head high
In the search for another truth

I go from sunset to sunset
Cause everybody lets me in
Every trance is my train home
And in the dark your eyes will glow again

I rise when the night falls
I'm waiting for a friend to call
I like to move in the shadow
I like to feel high
And leave the high road behind once more

I go from sunset to sunset
Cause everybody lets me in
Every trance is a train home
In the night our hearts will glow again

As I'm taken to the home of your highs
And I'll take you to the house of your allies
And they'll know us by the things we leave behind now
And it comes to me like a dog in a streetlight
We're lost in the real life

From sunset to sunset
Everybody lets you in
Every trance is a train home
In the night your hearts will glow again

From sunset to sunset
Everybody wins
Every trance is a medal
And in the dark we feel like one again

As I take you to the home of your highs
And I'll take you to the house of your allies
And they'll know us by the things we leave behind now

It comes to me like a dog in the streetlight
We're lost in the real life

From sunset to sunset
Everybody lets you in
Every trance is a train home
In the night your hearts will glow again

From sunset to sunset
Everybody wins
Every trance is a medal
And in the dark we feel like one again

From sunset to sunset
