(Shrouded) criminal and in the fade of my...
(We must let words go)
Shadow, they're oblivious
With plans around
(We want)
Who can save us now?

Love seems barren when cash is king
Wealthy for the bleeding, what good will bring
More than I could ask from those who sleep
A crooked mind and honest heart still agree
Make em' right

Cheating innocence
I've got the time to breathe

Tonight

Got time, got time.
I got time, got time.

Love seems barren when cash is king
Wealthy for the bleeding, what good will bring
More than I could ask from those who sleep
A crooked mind and honest heart still agree
Make em' right
