A-N-I-M-A-L-S
We are still wild animals
A-N-I-M-A-L-S
We are still wild animals

Bright cities keep me awake
Bright cities keep me awake
And after the thrill is gone
There's nothing to believe in
No, after the thrill is gone
There's nothing to believe in anymore

Bright cities keep me awake
And it's you and the bright cities
You keep me awake, you say,

"After the feeling's gone
There's nothing to engage in, anymore
After the feeling's gone
There's nothing to engage in, anymore"

A-N-I-M-A-L-S
We are still wild animals
A-N-I-M-A-L-S
We are still wild animals

White cities, blow me away
The white cities, blow me away
You say,

"After the feeling's gone
There's nothing to engage in, anymore
No, after the feeling's gone
There's nothing to engage in, anymore"

A-N-I-M-A-L-S
We are still wild animals
A-N-I-M-A-L-S
We are still wild animals
