I want simplicity back
You can have simplicity back
I want simplicity back
You can have simplicity back
[x2]

What wakes you up at night?
What makes you close your eyes again?
What makes you dream of tides
And shakes your head from side to side?
It's never gonna change
It comes and goes in waves
When panic's taking hold
Paranoia takes me home

I want simplicity back
You can have simplicity back
I want simplicity back
You can have simplicity back
[x2]

You can have simplicity back

It keeps you up at night
And spins around inside your mind
Like people from the past you
Thought you'd never want to leave behind
Confuse the things you know
With the things you can't let go
When strangers take control
Paranoia takes me home

So far out is the circuit back to normal [x4]
So far out

I want simplicity back
You can have simplicity back
I want simplicity back
You can have simplicity back
[repeat]
