Conflicting Emotions

[repeated at least 7 times with laughter in background...]

I've always let my feelings flow
Like water from the tap
Running hot and cold
But it's only myself I con
It's safer to do nothing, with so much going on I will resolve the conflict, the convict has a longing to be free

Conflicting Emotions, never let me be Conflicting Emotions, always in the way Conflicting Emotions, making everything so hard for me

The main obstacle in my way, is terminal indecision
I waver and I sway
My friends don't know who I am
One day I'm in clover, next day in a jam
And all of my tomorrows and all my yesterdays belong to you

Conflicting Emotions, never let me be
Conflicting Emotions, always in the way
Conflicting Emotions, making everything so hard for
me

Conflicting Emotions, never let me be
Conflicting Emotions, always in the way
me
