I'm so freakin cool
And Elle is swimming naked in my pool

And now I'm in the can and holding still

While my ass is passing hundred dollar bills

While the sun's singing songs to the earth

Me and Elle are dancing down in the dirt

It's so cruel to be feeling so great

Knowing it ends when I get up at eight

No no don't wake me now, just give me five minutes more

No no don't wake me now, I've never been so adored

No no don't wake me now, how I wish I could make this real some how

Please don't wake me up now

The world's about to end

Like Superman I'm flying to defend

And all the girls are screaming out my name

Cause I'm about to save the world again

And there's Maryanne, Ginger and I

Playing Twister here on Gilligan's Isle

It's so cruel to be feeling so great

Knowing it ends when I get up at eight

No no don't wake me now, just give me five minutes

more

No no don't wake me now, I've never been so adored

No no don't wake me now, how I wish I could make this real some how

Please don't wake me up now

Then I woke with the sun in my eyes

Noticed that my hardware's oversized

Gotta spend a day wasting oxygen before I get to crawl into bed again

No no don't wake me now, just give me five minutes

No no don't wake me now, I've never been so adored

No no don't wake me now, how I wish I could make this
real some how

Please don't wake me up now
