cry out in the silence, in the darkness no-one's there Something keeps haunting me, put my fingers to the air.

I'd touch you if I could feel you, with my hand I'd make a wave

Knee to knee, anyone inside, touch me now and close your eyes

No more living day by day, it's hard for me Look into my soul, maybe then you'd realise and see it's me.

Insense scent, candles glow, place my shadows on the wall

Entity embracing me, I trust won't let me fall

You feel me, see thru me, look deep into my soul

You're there inside, if you want to hide

It's time we said goodbye.

No more living day by day, it's hard for me look into my soul, maybe then you'd realise and see it's me.

The power of dreams, how easy it seems that they can ruin the perfect, the perfect in me

No more will I hide, take me deep down inside

Strip away all your fear, and you'll see & say to me

It's perfect to me.

Life ends so easily and silence comes so fast

My need to live has abandoned me too quick to make me last

In life I will forever sleep, in dreams I will awake

My perfect side no longer hides, in death I am alive.

but you sleep like a ghost with me
