How do I live without hope?
Tell me do you wanna know if I could Cos I don't believe the things I see I can't pretend I am, what I won't be
How do I live without hurt?
Tell me, do you wanna know if a god
Could be bought & sold so easily
And laugh at everyone & everything
Holding on, I'm smiling at you
I'm frowning as you walk away
And like a child I hate you in that subtle way

Nothing lives, everything dies away.
How do I live without love?
Tell me, do you wanna know was I wrong?
Cos for everyday that comes to me is one more that I am, that I won't be
How do I live without hope?
Tell me do you wanna know what I've done?
I just don't believe the things
I've seen I can't become the way that you see me
