You don't have to be ashamed anymore your face is saved.
You don't have to tell a lie about who you are it's quite alright
Your binds are broke your mind is free
Hey you what you gonna do now, Everybody wants to shine so bright Set free who you gonna be now Everybody came to see tonight
You don't have to stab your mind let it go the past behind you now
You don't have to sell yourself to anyone get off the shelf
Your binds are broke your mind is free
Once broken down without a doubt Just let it go and push it out Your gonna be alright!
