that shade of green is deadly but youve always got me so confused staring deep inside you you dont know what you put me through lost inside you
cant live without you

why did i have to feel this way about you
at a time so wrong
with only 3 more months until
youre gone

ive always had it in me but i should have listened to myself youve always had it too but sometimes it seems so hard to tell
lost inside you

where will i go when youre gone what will i do
when youre gone
