You pulled me in no emotion
Constant though of your devotion
Knew it from the start, cant be trusted
I dusted you off and cleaned you for the next guy

Cause I just drowned in your eyes again
I look around and feel your skin
I cant believe the things that you did

Now back to the same old club
Never thought I need your love
So I drowned with the same old drink
Thoughts of you just make me sick

Lifes a bitch and then you die
That?s why we can fly
Now you never know where youre gonna go so i

Now im drowning
I am drowning

Ill just sail away
