They rage into the night
Cloaked in gowns of thunder
And the rising tide
Your flesh will start to burn with the hunger
Your soul will open wide
All the devils that tormented you
All the angels that you never knew
Into the depths you will plunder
You will plunder
Into the fire!

Bathed in tainted blood
As the death count grows higher
It's the dawn of the day
Licensed with the will of desire
It's a crime that doesn't pay
It's the temple of all sacrifice
It's the burning that will leave no ice
Throw yourself upon the flaming pyre
It's getting higher
Into the fire!

They rage into the night
Cloaked in gowns of thunder
And the rising tide
Your flesh will start to burn with the hunger
Your soul will open wide
People remember what you see
'Cause what you did - did THIS to me!
Into the depths you will plunder
You will plunder
Into the fire!
