Visit "Myself In You" on MotoLyrics.com

I'll find a way to come home to you
Tomorrow's not that far away

I kiss your lips in my head every night
I dream about the endless fire, the flaming sky

Find me, 'cause i'm lost in this reality
Find me, 'cause i'll let ypu, yeah i'll let you

I just want to say, please just stay with me
I am not afraid to be the same with you
I find myself in you

I've sat before on the floor of my room
I always thought that it would be like this real soon

But now you're here, nothing to fear with those eyes
I can't explain why i grow weak when you look into mine
