I.

You are perfect as you are
Your eyes are the brightest
As you dance in the slowest
That motion can become.

To be near you
I resign
And underneath the radiant smiles
Of perkiness that leave me
Defenseless as I stare

Refrain:

I might need a little more courage
I'm just waiting
For the universe to show me
How to steal you from the sky

Chorus:

You can be the most regal
And towering in this room
I'll still be the luckiest guy
Here with you

And you could come
Through a room
With your delicate grace
Take these hands and guide
This embrace

Oh...

II.

You are luminescent always
Your heels are the highest
As you brighten this night is
Like a spectacle of light.

(Repeat Refrain and Chorus)

Oh...

Bridge:

There's a fine line
Between pauses and delays
In everything we say
I'll take it everyday, I know I can.

And if the night sky
Should hide the light I see
I'll make my way beyond the dark
I'll be fine.

(Repeat Chorus 2x)

And if in case
The most abstract
Of color fades away
I'll still be thankful for you each day.

Oh, oh.

I'll still be thankful for you each day.

Oh, oh.

I'll be fine.
