What was I supposed to say
When I look back
There never was an easier way
I want to take back
The day I said "it's time to leave"
Had to get back
Another time for me to make believe

When we started the song
We were reckless and free
Just a will and a want
For a world we thought was meant to be
It's now that I see

When the music was done
Was it all just a game?
All the days we had won
Now a long lost memory

Chorus:
I must have left without you
Just when I thought I found you
I must have left without you

Take a step back
There's something else I want to say
Never hold back
Always just another better day
When I came back
You never left this avenue
Now I look back
Yesterday we never had to

And I know that it's gone
Nothing's ever the same
Not a face or a name
Just a long lost memory

Chorus

All it takes is one small step
To fall back into time

Ours was done
What's lost and won
We just ran out of time

Still I'm drawn to the flame
And the feelings remain
But the fire for the night's
Now a long lost memory

Chorus

Still I know every song by heart
I sing it
(All it takes is one small step to fall back into time)
Still I know every song by heart
