Saw it disappear into the dark
All the hope we put together falls apart
In a millisecond point of zero-one
It's even slower than forever could ever run

In a millisecond point of zero-one
It's even slower than forever could ever run
And there's a billion pieces left behind to share
Not a single one of us has the guts to bear
A cross, do you?

We can't go through this again
Plucking our eyes out, turning to stone
Give up on heaven, give up the throne
Give up on heaven

Plucking your eyes out, turning to stone
Give up on heaven, give up the throne
Give up on heaven

And there's a billion pieces left behind to share
Not a single one of us with the guts to bear
A cross or a switchblade
But you, you've got it down
Or do you?

We can't go through this again
Plucking your eyes out, turning to stone
Give up on heaven, give up the throne
Give up on heaven

We can't go through this again
Plucking your eyes out, turning to stone
Give up on heaven, give up the throne
Give up on heaven, heaven
I can't go through this again

Saw it disappear into the dark
All the hope we put together falls apart
In a millisecond point of zero-one
It's even slower than forever could ever run

There's a billion pieces left behind to share
Not a single one of us with the guts to bear
A cross

I can't go through this again
