Last night, all the horrible things
In life start through my dreams
And I just want to shine it up
Shine it down or shine off

Going where we lost it all
Yet things before are with us now
It hurts, it kills, it takes a choice
It brings no light, it brings no love

And what we want most is no where
To be found, some people care
They're going long, they're going deep
Still, it's nowhere to be found

We're looking far, we're searching wide
Still, it's nowhere to be found
We're looking far, we're searching wide
Still, it's nowhere to be found
What we want is gone for good
It's simply nowhere to be found

Somewhere is the one that never will burn out
Is how they're looking for a heart
Looking for a home, looking for a hand
This broke his head, you're not alone
You're not alone, you're not alone
You're not alone, you're not alone

And you never said, ?I'd see you again?
You never said, ?I will?
You never said, ?I'd see you again?
You never said, ?I will, I will
I will, I will, my love?

Someone, somewhere says they've got it all
But that's not even what we want
Not even close, not even close
It won't ever be what we want

It won't ever be what we want
It won't ever be what we want

It won't ever be what we want
