I've started over again
Lookin' for saints and clovers and friends
I need something to believe in
Before I lose the will to keep breathin'.

Make believe you feel something for me,
Just make believe and I'll pretend,
To love you till the end.

Adrenaline used to be my friend.
But now she's gone and I feel nothing.
Won't you please come, please come back again.
Adrenaline, you're my only friend.

Take one look at my eyes
Even comedians will cry
And the saints, they all will die.
And without you so will I.

Make believe you feel something for me,
Just make believe and I'll pretend,
To love you till the end.

Adrenaline used to be my friend.
But now she's gone and I feel nothing.
Won't you please come, please come back again.
Adrenaline, you're my only friend.

Adrenaline will soon kick in
And I will start to feel again
Won't you please, please come back my friend?
And I'll love you till the end.....

I've started over again.....
