"Only Skin"

Visit "Only Skin" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm leaving now I cannot stay
I haven't got the time

Don't use the stars to find me
Don't expect them to align
If you see me when you're dreaming
Please don't take it as a sign

I'm leaving now I cannot stay
I haven't got the time

Remember me with yellow hair and freckles on my nose
Remember me in purple shoes and turquoise pantyhose
Remember my two ankles, my fingers, and my toes
Remember me with yellow and freckles on my nose

(Ahh, ooh, ahh)

Your name is just a noise now
Your face is only skin

The only thing we ever sing
Are songs of "Could've been"
We never got to end the thing
We never could begin

Your name is just a noise now
Your face is only skin
