This is a riot.
I will not sell out, I will not give in.
The strangle hold of society.
Was dragin' me down, but I broke free.
I'm never going back to the way I was.
I've found the truth I've been looking for.
Holding out for a better deal.
I've seen the Truth, I know it's real.
Holding out for a better day.
A new tomorrow, a better way.
This is a riot.
I will not conform to the pattern of this world.
Instead I will be transformed by the renewing of my mind and spirit.
My strength come from God.
Who gives me power to bear it.
