if you're dream is shattered pick up the glass Don't let your head, keep running whatever is behind you leave it past can't you see, what's coming

-Chorus-

Let the world turn,
let the world turn around.
Let the world turn,
let the world turn around.
On the wild trip,
on the wild trip around.
Let the world turn,
let the world turn around.
On the wild trip,
on the wild trip around

Will you be glad when they let you off Oh but you don't know really where you've been Make believing what they think is real
Just tell me what exactly have they seen

Can't hold on to their established mold
Because the greed will stop their ways Coulda been just like them years ago
But then I wouldn't be livin' life this day

If breakthroughs keep occurring let them in
You know that time is all we're made of The world will keep on spinning Let it spin
You know that time will all be made up Sent the world on it' wild wild trip It's to far gone to even stop it now Got your life you better live it now Before someone will have to show you how
Will you be glad when they let you off Oh but you won't know really where you've been make believe in what they think is real

Just tell me what exactly have they seen
