I've been around,
I searched the whole world over.
Lookin' for Unconditional love.

I hear the sound,
A million hearts in motion.
I feel the passion,
But it never seems enough.

But you me,
The Earth moves under my feet.
The walls came tumblin' down.

[Chorus:]
I've been through the fire,
Right down to the wire,
But I'm still a stranger to love.
I've felt desire,
And it took me higher,
But I'm still a stranger to love.
[End Chorus]

Time after time,
I felt infatuation,
But the feelin' disappears,
In the mornin' light.

Losin' my mind,
I searched in desperation.
No rhyme or reason,
If it got me through the night.

You start a fire,
That I never felt before.
Could you be the one girl,
To open up the door.

[Repeat Chorus]

Let me tell ya...

[Repeat Chorus]

Ohh, oh, oh, yeah.
Ohh, oh, oh, yeah.
Ohh, oh, oh...
A stranger to love.

Ohh, oh, oh, yeah.
Ohh, oh, oh, yeah.
Ohh, oh, oh...
A stranger to love.

But you? me,
The Earth moves under my feet.
The walls came tumblin' down.

[Repeat Chorus 2x]

I've been lookin' for love,
And it's so hard to find.
I'm still a stranger to love.

My search is over now that you're mine
I'm still a stranger to love.
I've felt desire,
And it took me higher,
But I'm still a stranger to love.

[Repeat Chorus 3x]
