"Failure #2"

Takes a lot of time, my friend
To open up the door
You try to widen out
But finds out you're a failure
To figure something out
You'll miss on something else
To be somewhere else
You're never to be seen

You're looking at a girl
She gives you the eye
You're looking at a girl
Then you walk away

Takes a lot of time, my friend
To open up the door
You try to widen out
But finds out you're a failure

You're looking at a girl
She gives you the eye
You're looking at a girl
Then you walk away

La-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la-la-la
Rai-rai-rai-rai-ra
Rai-rai-rai-rai-ra
