you take another one in the back--you take another one
in the teeth
I've got a veil over my eyes--this fucking country won't let me see
I'll take this knife out of my back--and stab it straight into the heart of a country that was built on lies--and murder from the start
it's time to take it for the team boy--you're the no esteem dream toy and if you bend over far enough--we'll make this country number one!
in the teeth
that our very own existence--isn't really ours to be you can't take this from me--you can't take this from my heart
it's a will to live--that carries me beyond the blinders if you look inside me-- there's a place you cannot take it's an independent solitude--a will you cannot break you'll never break-- I'll take this knife out of my back and stab it straight into the heart--of a country that was built on lies and murder from the start--and if you read between the lines
it's not very hard to see--that our very own existence isn't really ours to be
