Did you ever wonder
Will I make it through this night?
Did you ever wonder
Will I live for sacrifice?

Have you ever wondered
Will I ever see the light?
Have you ever wondered
Can I live another life, can I live another life?

I can't take away this fever
I can't take away the pain
But I will fight with you forever
Forever and a day

I can't face this world on my own
I keep on searching for your face
I promise that we'll live forever
Forever and a day

And in your darkest hour
You bleed without a knife
Your searching losing power
Your whole life has been a fight

You keep on giving selflessly
The world keeps on taking selfishly
You keep it bottled up inside, feel the sting
Take another ride, let's take another ride

I can't take away this fever
I can't take away the pain
But I will fight with you forever
Forever and a day

I can't face this world on my own
I keep on searching for your face
I promise that we'll live forever
Forever and a day

And in your darkest hour
You bleed without a knife

Your searching losing power
Your whole life has been a fight

As you walk out from the shadows
And the darkness fades away
And you step into tomorrow

I can't take away this fever
I can't take away the pain
But I will fight with you forever
Forever and a day

I can't face this world on my own
I keep on searching for your face
I promise that we'll live forever
Forever and a day

Forever and a day
Forever and a day
Forever and a day
Forever and a day
