Say baby, say baby
Where are you right now?
Been missing you lately, I can't do without My body is aching; I'm helpless, in doubt
I'm weak and I'm feeling
I need you right now

I traveled by sea
I traveled by car
No matter how far
Just to be where you are
My heart is just racing
I can't be alone
I'm nervous, I'm pacing
I need you at home

I don't need no coffee
I don't need no cigarettes
Don't want nothing at all
Cause boy you're my addiction
I don't want no chocolates
Don't even want your fixes
Don't need no drink at all
Because you're so addictive, because you're so addictive

I'm going crazy
Got no train of thought
Got nothing to lean on
No, nothing at all
Yes, I have a problem
It's hard to admit
I keep coming for more
Boy, just for one hit

I'd ride on a plane
I've traveled by car
No place is too far
Just to be where you are
My heart is just racing
I can't be alone

I'm nervous, I'm pacing
Boy please come back home

I don't need no coffee
I don't need no cigarettes
Don't want nothing at all
Cause boy you're my addiction
Don't even want your fixes
Don't need no drink at all
Because you're so addictive, because you're so
addictive

You're what I want
Cant do me no harm
Baby you're good for me, you are
I just can't quit, don't wanna stop
Cause it's hard

I don't need no coffee
addictive (2x)
