I will only break your heart
Let you down
Give you false hope
When you're reaching up
I will watch you fall
Until you hit, hit, hit
Your all time low
Low, low
Low, low

If you knew
What was good for you
You'd stay away from me
If you knew
What was good for you
You'd turn around and leave

I have nothing nice to say
It comes naturally
Let no one close
I push everyone away
I keep it simple
It's just me, me, me
I'm alone
Alone, alone
Alone, alone

If you knew
What was good for you
You'd stay away from me
If you knew
What was good for you
You'd turn around and leave
If you knew
What was good for you
You'd stay away from me
If you knew, if you knew

I don't have a problem with you
I don't have a problem
I don't have a problem

And I don't have time to solve one
I don't have a problem with you

If you knew
What was good for you
You'd stay away from me
If you knew
What was good for you
You'd turn around and leave
If you knew
What was good for you
You'd stay away

I will only break your heart
I will only let you down
