I am trying to drown out all of this noise
Such a loud noise
These walls are so thin
I can hear breathing from the other side

Isn't it strange how everything comes together
Isn't it strange how we can last

I am trying to let go of my past
Such a heavy past
Looking for something to make any sense
Can't it make

Isn't it strange how everything comes together
Isn't it strange how we can last

I am waiting for my big break but waiting's nothing but a mistake
I am letting go of the past
Won't let anything hold me back

'Cause if you want this like I want this
Can you hear this like I hear it
Can you see this like I see it
Can you feel this like I feel it

Isn't it strange how everything comes together
Isn't it strange how we can last forever
Forever
Forever
Last forever

Forever
Forever
Last forever
